

Press Release: February 19, 2025, Mohnton, PA

PA Classics Joins Forces with Berks United FC and FC Revolution to Form PA Classics Reading

In a game-changing move for the region's soccer landscape, PA Classics, one of Pennsylvania's most respected and nationally recognized soccer clubs, is proud to announce the merger of two premier clubs in the Reading area: Berks United FC and FC Revolution. This historic partnership will create PA Classics Reading, combining decades of rich soccer history, elite coaching, and unmatched resources under one powerful banner.

All teams currently under Berks United FC and FC Revolution, will now be known collectively as PA Classics Reading. All of these teams will have direct access to the Girls Academy (GA), National Academy League (NAL), and MLS Next. This is a merger that will have an immense impact on the quality of soccer in the Reading area, as well as provide exciting new opportunities.

PA Classics Reading will practice and play out of the Ultimate Athletic Complex in Mohnton, PA in addition to Shriners in Maiden creek Township. Becky Wells, Owner of Berks United FC, and Mike Moyer, Owner of FC Revolution, will be Directors of PA Classics Reading. Colin Kent will be the club's Boys Director, and Eric Franks will be the club's Girls Director.

"PA Classics is one of Nation's leading clubs. They have a strong tradition of developing some of our region's and nation's most premier soccer players," states Berks United FC Club Owner, Becky Wells. "In addition, FC Revolution has deep roots and history in Reading area soccer. They have been well established for the past 20 years. I am excited to join forces and bring together our networks. Together we will continue to further develop all of our players and provide them with unique and valuable training opportunities."

"We are very excited to be working with Berks United FC and FC Revolution. Both clubs have done a tremendous job of developing talent in Berks County. We look forward to being a part of the growth of soccer in this area. It is important for the youth in the Berks County and Reading areas to have the top clubs working together and all working in the same direction," states Steve Klein, PA Classics Director of Coaching. "Hopefully, this is the first step in unifying youth soccer in the county which will benefit the development of all players involved."

Mike Moyer, owner of FC Revolution, is equally enthusiastic about the future: "The soccer landscape has evolved dramatically in recent years, and this merger positions PA Classics Reading at the forefront. It's all about the players, and this partnership will offer them the resources and training they need to thrive at the highest levels. We are confident that families who choose PA Classics Reading will benefit immediately."

PA Classics Reading will release tryout details soon. Together we are making a huge difference in how we develop our region's soccer players.

